SONOMA COUNTY WINEGROWERS has recently announced they have become the first winegrowing region ever to have 99% of their members certified sustainable. The organization, representing all 1,800 winegrape growers in Sonoma County, set a goal in 2014 to have 100% of their members certified sustainable, and have essentially achieved this in just five years!

In honor of the first responders who valiantly served Butte County in the wake of the Camp Fire, FARMERS BREWING CO brewed a special "Bravo Brew" for a special event honoring these individuals. The brew is a Vienna style lager with bravo hops and Farmers Brewing Co's estate grown rice. The Farmers Brewing Co team is pictured here with Sheriff Kory Honea.
