NAPA VALLEY FARMWORKER FOUNDATION

SUPPORTING SOCIALLY DISADVANTAGED AND UNDERSERVED FARMERS

The Napa Valley Farmworker Foundation was recently awarded grant funding through the California Department of Food and Agriculture Office of Farm Equity California Underserved And Small-Scale Producer Grant Program. Napa Valley Farmworker Foundation's application was one of just 11 successful projects selected for funding throughout the state. Through the leveraging of grant funding, the project is providing education and direct technical assistance to Napa's underserved and socially disadvantaged farmworkers and farmers helping them to address impacts from COVID-19. Morrison has had the opportunity to assist Napa Valley Farmworker Foundation in these efforts, providing direct support to producers applying for the California Small Business COVID-19 Relief Grant Program, Coronavirus Food Assistance Program, and other similar relief programs.

Renewal CENTER

A PROJECT OF THE JESUS CENTER

RENEWAL CENTER RECEIVES A GIFT

The Jesus Center recently received a $75,000 gift from Tri Counties Bank to support their efforts on their Renewal Center project, a cross-agency effort designed to more holistically offer help and support to those struggling with homelessness. This remarkable project, and the transformative work of the Jesus Center, was featured in our Summer 2021 Newsletter. As a board member of the Jesus Center, Morrison Managing Principal Toni Scott had the opportunity to accept the donation alongside Jesus Center Executive Director Laura Cootsona and the Tri Counties Bank team. The team at Tri Counties Bank is also offering education on budgeting, financial planning, how to manage debt, and ways to plan for the future for Jesus Center participants.
