Q&A WITH TIM

WHAT ARE YOUR FAVORITE ACTIVITIES?
Either spending time outside (disc golf, camping, hiking, and backpacking) or watching sports (49ers, Warriors, SF Giants, Oregon Ducks). I also enjoy reading, exercising, and chasing my kids around with a hose.

TELL US ABOUT YOUR KIDS!
We have two girls, Karamea (9) and Mackinnon (7), and one boy, Wellington (5). They are sweet, caring, energetic, hilarious, and watching them grow each day has been one of the most rewarding journeys of my life.

WHAT DO YOU FIND MOST REWARDING ABOUT WORKING AT MORRISON?
Probably Jeff's dad jokes. But seriously, the best thing about working at Morrison is the people I get to work with. Brent instilled a great culture and work environment at Morrison, and Toni has done a great job of keeping it going.

IF YOU COULD CHOOSE TO DO ANYTHING FOR A DAY, WHAT WOULD IT BE?
Spending a day in the mountains with the family, preferably with a lake where we can go kayaking.

WHAT IS YOUR FAVORITE FAMILY RECIPE?
Probably my grandma's two-ingredient biscuits. I don't know off the top of my head what those two ingredients are, but we have the recipe in our kitchen somewhere, and my wife makes them just as good as my mom and grandma.

WHAT IS ONE OF YOUR FONDEST MEMORIES?
We used to spend a week in Yosemite every summer with my grandparents, aunts, uncles, and cousins on my mom's side of the family (probably where I developed my love of the outdoors). Lots of wandering in the woods, climbing rocks, and playing cribbage.

HOW WOULD YOUR FRIENDS DESCRIBE YOU?
Loyal and reliable. I may not respond to every text message immediately, but I will find a way to be there when I am needed.

WHO IS YOUR HERO?
I recently re-read the book of Daniel in the Bible, and it really stood out to me how great of a role model he is. His commitment to serving and advising the king without compromising his values, even in the face of adversity, is truly admirable.
