Q&A WITH ANA

WHAT GAME ARE YOU REALLY GOOD AT?

I would say tennis. Started in 2016 never having played. I am now rated a 4.0. Just took a love to the sport. It is my way to de-stress as well as good exercise and have met really good people through tennis. I have captained two tennis teams to Nationals. Once in 2018 and once in 2021. Unlike most sports, tennis can be played at any age.

WHAT IS YOUR FAVORITE PART ABOUT MORRISON?

My favorite part of Morrison is the culture and the people. It’s more like a family and starts at the top with Brent, the founder, and our managing partner, Toni Scott. I am amazed by the talent of the team that goes along with our three service areas:

- Business and Accounting Advisory
- Grants
- People Solutions

Morrison has the team, tools, and expertise to bring meaningful and lasting success to organizations.

WHAT ACCOMPLISHMENT ARE YOU MOST PROUD OF?

Being a mother and grandmother to my daughter Brittany and granddaughter Reina. Reina just turned three and brings us such joy. It’s true what they say about being a grandparent: Grandma’s, or Nani as I am called by Reina, are moms with lots of frosting.

WHAT IS THE DUMBEST WAY YOU’VE BEEN INJURED?

Playing tennis. I was running backwards for a high lob my opponent hit and I ran out of room to run. I hit the fence and my foot got stuck between the fence and the tennis court. I couldn’t pull it out for a while, but when I finally did it hurt like heck! I had to ice and wrap it for over a week. I was more upset about losing the point than my foot in that moment.
